

The background is a vibrant collage of abstract, hand-drawn shapes. At the top, there are several colorful brushstrokes in shades of purple, brown, orange, and olive green. To the right, a thick blue wavy line curves across the top. In the center, the word "bullet" is written in a bold, brown, rounded font with a yellow drop shadow. Below it, the word "journal" is written in a blue, cursive script with a green drop shadow, set within a light orange rounded rectangle. The bottom of the page features a pink semi-circle with purple brushstrokes above it, and a yellow wavy line with a pink one below it. The overall style is playful and artistic.
